Enjoying The Promises of God

Remember me, O LORD, with the favour that Thou bearest unto Thy people: O visit me with thy salvation; That I may see the good of Thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the gladness of Thy nation, that I may glory with Thine inheritance. Psalms 106: 4, 5

For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an expected end.
Jeremiah 29:11

Going Beyond the Natural

Last Thursday after the awesome time of worship, Pastor Ashish shared how God is raising a special breed of people who would possess the promises of God. A set of people who will get detached completely from Egypt and have no memory of it, except of the provisions of God. This can be possible when we allow the person of the Holy Spirit invade our lives and change our thinking.

Pastor clarified the difference between having a servant's heart and a servant's mind. Many of us are sons in the making but still children. Children have a servant's mind as they do not understand what belongs to them. But we need to mature and desire to have the mind of Christ which understands what it is to be a true son of God. God has called us to rule and reign with Him and have a kingly mindset with a heart which is ready to serve. Servant hood is important but it should not control us in our thinking. Remember to check - Servants compare, sons work in pairs; Servants complain, sons claim; Servants compete, sons complete. What breed are you?

Trials and tribulations are common to man. And what works inside of us during this time, will determine what will happen to us. The reasons of wilderness in our life, sometimes comes because of our own fault or because one is driven into wilderness to be taught to deal with the devil. In both places, the angels of God are ready to minister to us. And just like Moses, Joshua, Rahab, and the spies that Joshua sent to Jericho, trusted what God said and acted accordingly, we need to trust God. They were not afraid even at times when the enemy king was after them. We need to be childlike in our trust in God and His promises. What we see is what we get! It is not how 'thick the wall is, but who is on which side of the wall' which matters. Joshua and the children of Israel were outside the thick wall of Jericho, and Moses was put inside an ark made of bulrushes, but in both cases they were victorious and protected, because God was on their side. Childlike trust and obedience brought them their breakthrough. Always remember God's thoughts and ways are higher than our thoughts and our ways. And we need to be sure that the thoughts He has towards us are of peace and to give us an expected end.

On Friday, Pastor explained how to have The Hidden Life in God and the importance of immersing ourselves completely in the River of God. There is a place in God where we can be so immersed that our enemy cannot touch us! The anointing, abiding and immersing in God is of great importance as it helps us in transforming our mindsets, developing our identity in God and having complete freedom from our enemies.
